The bestselling Dictionary of Business, now available in a completely revised Second Edition, covers the basic business vocabulary of both British and American English: it now includes 12,000 main headwords. The terms cover all aspects of business life from the office to the stock exchange to international business trade fairs. Clear definitions are included for each term, together with example sentences (drawn whenever possible from both business and popular newspapers and magazines -- to demonstrate how the terms are used in practice), part of speech, grammar notes, and encyclopedic comments for the more complex terms. The Dictionary of Business also now includes phonetic pronunciation guides for all headwords. Supplements provide information on business practice, standard financial documents, and world currencies.

Directory is indexed by name (parent and subsidiary), geographic location, Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Code, and corporate responsibility.

This multi-volume set is a primary source for basic company and industry information. Names, addresses, SIC code, and geographic location of over 135,000 U.S. companies are included.

Definitions of more than 9,000 tourism and hospitality terms are provided in this revised and updated edition. Covering such subjects as travel, ticketing, hotels, and restaurants, along with general business, accounting, and personnel terms, this resource is ideal for students, employers, and employees who work in any part of the hotel or tourism industry. Handy supplements include quick reference lists of airline and airport codes, currencies, international dialing codes, time zones, balance sheets, and international public holidays.

‘From Pillar To Post’ takes a look at the restlessness of humans in vulnerable situations, especially in intimate relationships that become very traumatic. ‘From Pillar To Post’ takes the reader through the lives of two very close friends, Donna and David, their individual relationships with their current married, lifelong partners, their continuous affection for each other and eventually their lasting bond between them. Sometimes we ‘move on’ or ‘change’ what we think is the best way for our lives and end up worse off than before. We mentally and in some instances, actually create a plan with specific activities that are supposed to fix the many so-called problems we encounter. We never stop to breathe, feel the presence of the Divine or even think things through before acting on our impulses, letting go of the emotions that are so often present with the given situation. Outside influences tested Donna and David's affection for each other, which unfolded a series of events that devastated them, only to realize that they needed to breathe, think and feel the presence of the 'Divine' working within them to achieve their goal. Something they totally neglected. We tend to always look for better when sometimes best is what we already have. Who ?s to say that we already have the best? Everything we don ?t have always seems greener on the other side. But is it really? The most tragic of all is when we are in a relationship and the pressure is on. We ask ourselves many questions and answer them ourselves especially when we are hot-tempered. Actually, these are the times we ought not to, but we do anyway. Relationships are fragile connections of emotions, chemistry, passion, intellect, stimulation, eroticism, and attitude and to a large extent lust. Of course this is strictly from a secular perspective. When we explore our hearts truthfully we will find that there are lots more to it. Relationships though intangible have many tangible aspects that should be exercised for proper natural development. From a spiritual perspective, relationships are much more important and should be guarded closely as the key to understanding ourselves first, then our neighbor and most importantly the Divine. This fragile connection doesn ?t really exist since an understanding between two persons has been established and therefore will grow and develop into a stronger bond. 'From Pillar To Post' is basically about relationships and the events that unfold surrounding the individuals involved. It deals with abuse, rape, dishonesty, distrust, adultery and many more unpleasant incidents that are possible in failing relationships. It is the recollection of broken marriages and the repercussions of the people associated with Donna and David as it was revealed to me in eleven weeks and a day. The story unfolds during an eleven-week period. Donna wants to end a marriage of abuse, a marriage from a man who constantly raped her. He was of the opinion that husbands cannot rape their wives because they are supposed to be submissive. He says, in accordance with the Bible, they are supposed to honor their husbands. Donna was initially willing to have sex with her husband because she believes in "to keep him, do him!" but it all backfires when one day, soon after he had sex with her, he wanted to have her again. His adrenalin was on and she was all worn out. He, nevertheless, took her again in addition to bugging her leaving her not only physically disfigured but a psychologically scar as well. That day was enough to end the abuses that plagued her married life and she immediately decided to call her best and closest friend David to get her out it. She eventually divorced her husband David, willing to make the best of his marriage was shocked when he caught his beautiful and very powerful wife having sexual intercourse with another woman. His life came toppling down as he saw the deceit and unnecessary lies that were lai

When the world emerges from the current recession will you be the poorer for lack of experience? Having gone through your perceived necessary downsizing, have you left yourself wide open for experience-poor competitors to step into your experience-rich shoes? And if creeping uncompetitiveness is not to overtake you, from where will your next round of productivity gains come? Could it be that the developed world is wrecking its future for the lack of attention it is giving to preserving and applying its hard-won and expensively-acquired organisational memory (OM)? Without its tried and tested experience, the corporate body can't learn incrementally. The result? Having to re-invent the wheel, risk repeating mistakes and even not learning from successes. Corporate amnesia is the symptom. Experiential non-learning

Entrepreneurship is a battle! Faith is a battle! Bridging the two together is an even bigger battle! How do you bridge the gap between your plan and God's will? Listen attentively. Harken diligently. Run to His voice. Be forewarned: You are about to embark in a learning experience that may well oppose man's traditional opinion of running a successful business. But that's the point, to forgo our opinions in lieu of God's infallible ways. The Battle Plan is not hyper-spiritual, nor is it hyper-carnal, but it's the incredible testimony of how God can turn nothing into something if you will just trust His plans concerning you. Learn how to build your business on Biblical principles from those who have been through the trenches of starting, growing, and maintaining their own faith-based company. "Trenches" is an understatement. It's not easy, but it is possible. It's not all about products, procedures, and marketing. It is about the ABC's of faith: Action, Belief, and Confidence. God's Word is forever settled in heaven. What He promised, He is well able to do through you and through your business despite what the circumstances
