

southern Sudan, Ethiopia, and Kenya in search of safe haven. Based on the life of Salva Dut, who, after emigrating to America in 1996, began a project to dig water wells in Sudan.

When Albert and his buddies have a "no girls" baseball game, Frances and her sister organize a "Best Friends Outing -- No Boys."

CHI edition of two time Caldecott winner Chris van Allsburg's classic Two Bad Ants. Allsburg paints the dangerous adventure of two errand ants who navigate around the familiar appliances in the house. But the fact they are safe at the end of the story give children, who took the adventure with the ants, a sigh of relief. In CHI. Distributed by Tsai Fong Books, Inc.

Camp Green Lake, a juvenile detention facility where there is no lake, and there are no happy campers. In place of what used to be "the largest lake in Texas" is now a dry, flat, sunburned wasteland, pocked with countless identical holes dug by boys improving their character. Stanley Yelnats, of palindromic name and ill-fated pedigree, has landed at Camp Green Lake because it seemed a better option than jail. No matter that his conviction was all a case of mistaken identity, the Yelnats family has become accustomed to a long history of bad luck.
