DEFUSING THE HIGH-CONFLICT DIVORCE is a practical guide for therapists, attorneys, social workers, clergy, custody evaluators, and others who work with angry divorcing couples. The book offers a unique set of proven programs for quelling the hostility in high-conflict co-parenting couples, and "defusing" their prolonged, bitter and emotional struggles. In "The Affair is Over Now Go Live Your Life Abundantly," sociologist Dr. Jayne Maugans Swanson offers hope and healing to individuals who have had an affair or been impacted by an affair, including a spouse or partner, a daughter, son or other family member, a friend, to a fellow believer. The focus of this book is on how someone who had an affair or someone who was impacted by an affair needs to reach a point after the affair where the person can go on to live an abundant life, that is, to be who God created the person to be. Someone's success at living an abundant life after an affair can be helped or hindered by others' words and actions, which is a major reason this book is worthwhile for clergy, counselors, coworkers, and correspondents to read as well as for those involved in and impacted by an affair. Living an abundant life after an affair is over happens, explains Dr.

"Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario, 1893", issued as an addendum to vol. 26, no. 7.

Selected case histories show ways in which the emotional problems of both curable and terminally-ill cancer patients can be reduced

Chs. 1-10 (p. 7-111) relate the author's early childhood in Jasina, Czechoslovakia (which became part of Hungary in March 1939), her family's increasingly difficult situation after the Nazi occupation of Hungary in March 1944, and their subsequent deportation to Auschwitz. Describes the struggle for survival - along with her sister - in Auschwitz, their transfer as slave laborers to Nuremberg, and their liberation in May 1945. The rest of the author's family perished in the Holocaust.

Go-go is an upbeat, funky Black popular music from Washington, D.C. with a history as long as that of house or hip-hop. Natalie Hopkinson is the Media and Culture Critic for The Root, with access to clubs, producers, and artists, and is therefore well-placed to tell the story of the music from the 70s to the present. With the gentrification of the District, more of the Black population and the go-go industry have moved to the Maryland suburbs. In Go-Go Live, Hopkinson gives a critical, inside account of the scene and how it survives in a changing city.
